the Payment of the several and respective Assesses, Duties, and other Charges and Expenses which, in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force at and immediately before the 5th Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, have already been, or might be by limited and paid by the Commissioners of Excise out of the Moneys arising by the Duties and Revenues of Excise, or Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in this Part of Great Britain called Wine, and that the same shall and may, and are lawfully directed and required to be lawfully, paid, and discharged out of all or any of the said Moneys arising, or which shall hereafter arise by the said Duties and Revenues, and come into the Hands of the said Commissioners in the same and like Manner, and at the respective Times at which the same have usually been accustomed to be paid and lawfully; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

X. And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (amongst other Things), for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, it was enacted, that, from and after the Demise of his Majesty (whom God long preserve), the Sums of seven thousand and two Hundred fourteen Shillings and Three-pence out of the Moneys arising by the new Duties on Licences to retail Wine, referred by an Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, should be paid and accounted for to the Heirs and Successors of his Majesty, in like Manner as they were before the passing of an Act of the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the Support of his Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain; and whereas the said Duties on Wine Licences have been repealed, and certain Duties of Excise granted in lieu thereof, which, by the said Act, are also repealed; he it further enacted, That the aforesaid Sums of seven thousand and two Hundred fourteen Shillings and Three-pence shall, from and after the Demise of his Majesty (whom God long preserve), be lawfully, paid, and accounted for out of the Duties by this Act granted on Licences to retail Foreign Wine, in like Manner as they are by the said Act required to be referred, paid, and accounted for out of the like Duties hereby repealed.

XI. And whereas by the aforesaid Act of the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, it was directed, that the Commissioners of Excise should compute the exact Sums in which the whole of the hereditary Duties of Excise, which, by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King Charles the Second, intitled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and for giving the Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, and by several subsequent Acts of Parliament, were granted to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for ever, would amount, if the same had not been repealed or altered by another Act of Parliament, made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, granting a certain Sum out of the Aggregate Fund, in lieu of certain of the said hereditary Duties; and that the said Commissioners should transfer an Account thereof quarterly, into the Receipts of the Exchequer; and also, that the proper Officers of the said Receipts of Exchequer should set apart out of the Duties of Excise granted by the before-mentioned Act of the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, at the End of every Quarter after the Demise of his present Majesty, such a Sum of Money as it should appear by the said Account, the whole of the said hereditary Duties of Excise would have amounted to within each Quarter, to be paid to the Successors of the King's Majesty for ever; And whereas the Duties granted by the said Act of the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty are hereby repealed; he it therefore enacted, That the said quarterly Sums shall be computed, and shall be set apart and paid out of the Duties by this Act granted, in like Manner as they are by the said Act directed to be computed and set apart out of the Duties of Excise hereby repealed.

XII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intitled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knight Service and Parsonage; and for giving a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, it was enacted, that every five-and-thirty Gallons of Beer should be reckoned, accounted, and returned for a Barrel of Beer; and every two-and-thirty Gallons of Ale for a Barrel of Ale; and that, in Countenance of Wafers by Filings and Leakage, all Common Brewers not selling Beer and Ale by Retail, should be allowed three Barrels upon every twenty-two Barrels of Beer, and two Barrels upon every twenty-two Barrels of Ale out of the said Returns made by the Gaugers; and by another Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intitled, An Act for an additional Duty of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, it was enacted and declared, that for another Uncertainty and Delinquency, every four-and-thirty Gallons of Beer and Ale brewed or made by the Brewers, Vintners, or other Persons chargeable with the Duties of Excise other than within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the weekly Bills of Mortality, should be reckoned and returned for a Barrel of Beer or Ale; and that the Allowances made to the Common Brewers other than within the said Cities and Liberties, should be two Barrels and a Half upon every twenty-three Barrels: And whereas it is expedient that the Quantities to be returned as and for a Barrel of Beer or Ale brewed or made by the Common Brewer, and the Allowances for Wafers, should be in all Places the same; he it therefore enacted, That from and after the fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, every thirty-six Gallons of Beer or Ale brewed or made by the Common Brewers in Great Britain, whether within the weekly Bills of Mortality or without the same, taken according to the Standard of the Ale Quant, four whereof shall make the Gallon, remaining in the Custody of the Chamberlains of his Majesty's Exchequer, shall be reckoned, accounted, and returned by the Gauger or Gaugers, or other Officers of Excise for a Barrel of Beer or Ale; and that the Allowances to be made in Countenance to the Common Brewers not selling Beer, Ale, or Worts, in any less Quantity than a whole Cask containing four Gallons and a Half, whether within or without the aforesaid Liberties, for Wafers by Filings and Leakage of their Beer or Ale, or otherwise, out of the Returns or Charges made by the Gaugers or other Officers, shall be three Barrels upon every thirty-six Barrels, both

II. Provided always, and he it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Chief Commissioners of his Majesty's Revenue of Excise in England, from reducing the Quantity of Malt for which such Malster or Maker of Malt, Brewer, or Distiller, is to be charged or may be chargeable with Duty within the Year, to such Quantity and in such Manner as the said Commissioners are empowered and authorized to reduce the same, in and by an Act made in the Parliament of England in the fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to amend and continue an Act passed in the thirty-fourth Year of his Majesty's said Majesty's Revenue upon Malt, subject to the Regulations and Provisions in the said Act of the fourth Year aforesaid contained; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

VI. And whereas it is expedient to make further Provisions for the ascertaining from Time to Time of the Stock of Spirits in the Stoves or Possessions of Distillers and other Persons, be it therefore enacted, That in every Case where the Stock of Spirits in the Stoves or Possessions of any Distiller, Factor, or other Person dealing in or buying Spirits shall be less than the Quantity of Spirits which, by the Stock Account kept by the Officer of Excise of the Spirits of such Distiller, Factor, or other Person or Persons, he, she, or they ought to have in his, her, or their Stoves or Possessions, every such Distiller, Factor, or other Person or Persons, for every Time such Defect shall appear, shall forfeit the Sum of ten Shillings for every Gallon of Spirits which shall be deficient of the Quantity which, by the Stock Book or Account of Stock kept by such Officer, such Distiller, Factor, or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, ought to have in his, her, or their Stoves or Possessions.

VII. [19th July 1803.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, entitled, An Act for explaining and rendering more effectual two Acts, one made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intitled, 'An Act for granting a publick Reward for such Person or Persons as shall discover the Longitude at Sea,' and the other in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intitled, 'An Act to render more effectual an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intitled, 'An Act for granting a publick Reward for such Person or Persons as shall discover the Longitude at Sea,' with regard to the making Experiments of Proposals made for discovering the Longitude, and to enlarge the Number of Commissioners for putting in Execution the said Act,' it is among other Things enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners for discovering the Longitude at Sea, to cause such Nautical Almanacks, or other useful Tables, to be constructed, and to print, publish, and vend, or cause to be printed, published, and vend, any Nautical Almanack or Almanacks, or other useful Table or Tables, which they, or the major Part of them, should, from Time to Time, judge necessary and useful, in order to facilitate the Method of discovering the Longitude at Sea; and it was further enacted, that no Person or Persons should print, publish, or vend, or cause to be printed, published, or vend, any Nautical Almanack or Almanacks, or other Table or Tables constructed under the Direction of the said Commissioners, without being licensed by the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, and that if any Person or Persons was so licensed, or not being authorized by the Person or Persons so licensed by the said Commissioners, should print, publish, or vend, or cause to be printed, published, or vend, any such Nautical Almanack or Almanacks, or other Table or Tables, every such Person or Persons should, for every Copy of such Nautical Almanack or Table so printed, published, or vend, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be assessed and applied as in the said Act is mentioned: And whereas the said Commissioners for discovering the Longitude at Sea, have, from Time to Time, caused Nautical Almanacks, or Astronomical Ephemerides, and other Tables, to be constructed for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned, and particularly have for those Purposes caused such Nautical Almanacks, and Astronomical Ephemerides, and other Tables, to be constructed for the Years One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, One thousand eight hundred, One thousand eight hundred and one, One thousand eight hundred and two, One thousand eight hundred and three, One thousand eight hundred and four, One thousand eight hundred and five, and One thousand eight hundred and six: And whereas the said Nautical Almanacks, and Astronomical Ephemerides, and other useful Tables, have been printed and published pursuant to the Warrants or Licences of the said Commissioners for the said Years last-before mentioned, and the said Commissioners have caused sundry Calculations to be made towards the constructing, and completing and publishing of the like Nautical Almanacks, and Astronomical Ephemerides, and other useful Tables, for discovering the Longitude at Sea, for several Years subsequent to the said Year One thousand eight hundred and six: And whereas it has been found convenient that the said Nautical Almanacks, Astronomical Ephemerides, and Tables, should be constructed, printed, and published, only under the Authority of the major Part of the said Commissioners, who are many in Number, by reason of the Difficulty of obtaining the necessary Signatures and authorizing such Publications, and of proving the same to be the Signatures of the major Part of the said Commissioners for the Time being, in case of Prosecutions for printing the said Works; and it is expedient that further Regulations should be made in relation to the printing and publishing the said Nautical Almanacks, Astronomical Ephemerides, and other useful Tables: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of Longitude for the Time being, or any five or more of them, (if when the President of the Royal Society, and the Royal Astronomer at Greenwich for the Time being, shall be two,) to cause any Nautical Almanacks and Astronomical Ephemerides, and other useful Tables, to be constructed, as they the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, (if when the President of the Royal Society, and the Royal Astronomer at Greenwich shall be two,) shall from Time to Time judge necessary and useful to be constructed, in order to facilitate the Method of discovering the Longitude at Sea; and that it shall and may be lawful for such Printers or Persons as have been or shall be for that Purpose licensed in Manner hereinafter mentioned, to print, publish, and vend, or cause to be printed, published, and vend, any such Nautical Almanacks, or Astronomical Ephemerides, and other useful Tables, as have been, or shall from Time to Time be so constructed as aforesaid; any Law, Statute, exclusive Privilege, private Charter, or other Custom, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Licences already given and granted for printing, publishing, and vending any such Nautical Almanacks, and Astronomical Ephemerides, and other useful Tables, under the Hands of any five or more of the said Commissioners of Longitude for the Time being (if when the President of the Royal Society and the Royal Astronomer at Greenwich were two), shall be deemed as valid and effectual Licences for the Purposes therein mentioned, and for all other Intent and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same had been given, granted, and signed, by the major Part of the said Commissioners for the Time being; and that all Licences hereafter to be given and granted, for printing, publishing, and vending such Nautical Almanacks, and Astronomical Ephemerides, and other useful Tables, shall be signed by five or more of them the said Commissioners (if when the President of the Royal Society, and the Royal Astronomer at Greenwich for the Time being shall be two), and being so signed, shall have the same Force and Effect as if the same had been given, granted, and signed, by the major Part of the said Commissioners for the Time being; any Thing to any Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Penalties or Forfeitures of twenty Pounds each, for every printed Copy of the said Works, given by the said Act of the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Regency, shall from and after the passing of this Act, be such, informed, and prosecuted for by the Secretary of the said Commissioners of the Longitude for the Time being, or by some other Person or Persons authorized by Writing, signed by five or more of the said Commissioners, and shall not be such, informed, or prosecuted for by any other Person or Persons whatsoever, and that such Suits, Prosecutions, and Informations, shall not abate by reason of the Death of such Prosecutors, or any of them, but shall be continued, in the Case of a sole Plaintiff or Informer, dying before Judgement obtained, in the Name of the Secretary of the said Commissioners for the Time being; and that such Penalties or Forfeitures, when recovered, shall be wholly in the Person who shall inform, prosecute, or sue for the same in Manner aforesaid, which Penalties and Forfeitures when recovered shall be in Trust for, and subject to the Order and Disposition of the said Commissioners of Longitude for the Time being, or of any five or more of them; any Thing to the contrary in any former Act notwithstanding.

IV. And whereas by an Act made in the thirty-sixth Year of the Regency of his present Majesty, intitled, An Act for increasing the Encouragement and Reward of Persons making various Discoveries for finding the Longitude at Sea, or making other useful Discoveries and Improvements in Navigation, and for making Experiments relating thereto, the Cases Cases for the Discovery of Longitude were empowered wherever they should be testified of the Probability of any Proposal or Proposals that should be made to them for discovering the Longitude, or making any other useful Discovery and Improvement in Navigation, so as to think it proper to cause Experiments to be made thereof, to certify the same to the Commissioners of the Navy; and also in case they should acknowledge any Person or Persons to have made any Discovery for finding the Longitude at Sea, which, though out of its great Use as to be entitled to one of the great Rewards specified in an Act made in the fourteenth Year of his present Majesty, therein and also hereinafter referred to, yet that the said Discovery was of considerable Use to the Publick, or to have made any other Discovery or Discoveries, Improvement or Improvements useful in Navigation, to certify such like Reward, or Sum or Sums of Money, as they the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude should think reasonable to be paid to such Person or Persons; and the Commissioners of the Navy were thereby authorized and required to make out Bills upon the Treasurer or the Navy for such Sums so certified, who was thereby authorized to pay the same immediately to such Person or Persons, out of any Monies which should be in his Majesty's said Treasurer's Hands, excepted to the Use of the Navy; and it was thereby further enacted, that all such Sums or Sums of Money so should be paid by the Treasurer of the Navy, by virtue of the said Act, for the Purpose of making such Experiments as aforesaid, and in rewarding to a lesser Degree other Discoveries for finding the Longitude at Sea, and also other Discoveries and Improvements useful in Navigation, should not altogether exceed the Sum of one thousand Pounds: And whereas by several Payments made by the Treasurer of the Navy, pursuant to the Direction of the said Act of the thirty-sixth Year of the Regency of his present Majesty, the said Commissioners for the Discovery of the Longitude, have expended the whole of the Sum of five thousand Pounds, granted by the said Act for the Purpose aforesaid, and moreover, several Bills have been incurred, and are now growing due to sundry Masters and Traders due by Order of the said Commissioners in carrying the said Acts into Execution, and also for Services tending to the Benefit of Navigation: And whereas it is highly necessary that the said Bills should be discharged, and that the said Encouragements and Rewards for the Purposes mentioned in the said Act of the thirty-sixth Year of the Regency of his present Majesty, should be come out, It is therefore enacted, That the Commissioners for the Discovery of the Longitude shall and may certify the Amount of such Bills, together with the Names of the Persons to whom the same are or shall be respectively due, under their Hands and Rules for estimating the annual Value of Properties before defined in Schedules (A.) and (B.), in Great Britain, Ireland, and Berwick-shire-Town.

First.—No such Property shall be estimated at a less annual Value than the Rent or Value, at which the same shall be charged in the last Rate, made on or before the Time of making the Assessment, for the Relief of the Poor in the Parish or Place where such Property shall be situate.

Second.—Where the said Poor Rate shall be made throughout by a Rated Rate on the annual Value as the same would be estimated according to Schedule (A.), the Estimate thereon to be made under this Act, shall be made on the same Sum respectively as in such Poor Rate.

Third.—Where the said Poor Rate shall be made throughout by such Rated Rate on any proportionate Part of the annual Value as aforesaid, the Proportion thereof shall be observed as in the Poor Rate; but the Estimate thereon to be made under this Act, shall be made at the same Sum respectively as they would have been estimated at, if the Poor Rate had been made on the full Amount of such annual Value.

Fourth.—Where Properties of different Kinds shall be rated in the same Poor Rate, according to different Proportions of the Value thereof as aforesaid, or shall be rated therein at different Rates of such Value, but nevertheless the Proportions of the same Kind shall be rated in a due Proportion to each other, both as to the Value and Rate of Charge, in every such Case the Rule of rating Lands, both as to the Value and the Rate of Charge, shall, in making the Estimate under this Act, be observed throughout, as well with respect to such Lands, as to the other Properties therein rated, in so far as relates to such Poor Rates as shall be made either on the full Value of the Properties, or on any proportionate Part thereof.

ESB.—

Fifth.—In all Cases not falling within the three last preceding Rules, but nevertheless where the Proprietors shall appear to the Assessors to be rated in the Poor Rate in the same Proportion to each other, though the Proportions of such Rate to the Value of the Property need be not known, and the Assessors are able to ascertain the Rack Rent of any Property which shall have been let within the Period of seven Years preceding, within the Limits of the Parish or Place where the said Assessors shall sit, they shall make an Estimate of such Property on the Amount of such Rent; and the Estimate so made shall form the Basis on which the Estimates of other Properties of which the Rack Rent shall not have been so ascertained, shall be made; and they shall make their Estimates of all other Property in Sum bearing the same Proportion as near as the Case can be compared, to the Amount of such first Estimate, as the Ratio, at which such other Property is valued at in such Poor Rate, bears to the Sum charged in the said Poor Rate on the said Property first estimated; and as Cases where the same Rule of Proportion shall not have been observed in rating different Kinds of Property, then the Assessors shall make an Estimate, as above directed, upon each of such Kinds of Property, for the Purpose of forming a Basis, on which the Estimates of other Properties of the same Kind may be made.

Sixth.—Where there shall be no Poor Rate, or where any Property shall not be rated in any Poor Rate, the Assessors shall, from the best Information they can obtain of the Rent at which such Property shall have been let within the Term before last, or if not so let, of the annual Value thereof as ascertained, make an Estimate according to such Rent or annual Value, as the Case may require.

Seventh.—Where the Poor Rate of any Parish or Place shall not afford a just Proportion of the Value of Properties situated therein, according to any of the Rules before mentioned, or where shall not be any Property whereto to form the Basis of the Estimate to be made under this Act, according to the fifth Rule before mentioned, the Assessors may, according to the best of their Judgment, ascertain the annual Value of the several Properties therein, and make their Estimates according to such annual Value.

Eighth.—If by pursuing any of the preceding Rules, any Property which shall have been let at Rack Rent within the seven preceding Years, shall be estimated at a Sum exceeding such Rent, or any Property which shall not have been so let shall be estimated at a Sum exceeding the annual Value thereof, estimated according to the general Rule before prescribed, the Commissioners for executing this Act shall, on Appeal therefrom, give such Relief as by this Act is directed.

Ninth.—If by pursuing any of the preceding Rules, or otherwise, any Property which shall have been let at Rack Rent within the seven preceding Years, shall be estimated at a less Sum than the Amount of such Rent, or any Property which shall not have been so let, shall be estimated at a Sum less than the annual Value thereof, estimated according to the general Rule before prescribed, the Commissioners for executing this Act shall increase such Estimate, and proceed to make an Assessment according to such increased Estimate, in Manner herein directed.

Tenth.—Where any Landlord shall be subject to any Covenant or Agreement, to pay and satisfy out of the Rent reserved on any Leases or Tenements, all or any Part of any Rates, Taxes, or Assessments, which by Law are a Charge on the Occupier, or any Rent or other annual Payment to be made in lieu of Tythes or Tithes, or any Compensation for Tythes or Tithes, then and in every such Case, the Rent or annual Value, as the Case may require, shall be estimated, for the Purposes of this Act, exclusive of such Rates, Taxes, or Assessments, or of such Rent or Payment in lieu of Tythes or Tithes, or Compositions for Tythes or Tithes, to be computed on the Amount thereof and paid by such Landlord in and for the Year preceding the Year of Assessment.

Eleventh.—Where any Tenant of Lands or Tenements shall be subject to any Covenant or Agreement to pay and satisfy all or any Aids, Taxes, Rates, or Assessments, by Law chargeable on or payable by the Landlord or Landlords, then and in such Case the Amount thereof shall have been and paid by such Tenant in and for the Year preceding the Year of Assessment, shall, in making the Estimate for the Purpose of charging the Duty in respect of Occupation, be added to the Rent reserved, in case the same shall have been let within the Period of seven preceding Years, and if not so let, the Estimate shall be made according to the general Rule in Schedule (A.), without regard to such Payment.

Twelfth.—Where the Amount of Rent reserved on Lands shall depend on the Price of Corn or Grain, the Estimate, for the Purposes of this Act, shall be made on the Amount payable according to the Price fixed in the Year preceding the Year of Assessment on the same Average Price or Hans, and in the same Manner by which such Rents have usually been ascertained between the Landlords and Tenants, or according to the annual Value of such Lands, estimated according to the said general Rule, as the Case may require.

Thirteenth.—Where the Amount of Rent reserved on Tenements, Hereditaments, or Holdings, shall depend on the actual Produce thereof either in respect of the Price or Quantity of such Produce, the Estimate for the Purposes of charging the Duties in Schedule (A.) shall be made on the Amount or Value of such Produce in the Year preceding the Year of Assessment, according to the Prices fixed, or according to the Quantity produced in such preceding Year, by the same Rules, and in the same Manner by which such Rents have usually been ascertained between the Proprietors and their Lessees or Tenants.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That every such Affidavit shall sledge and declare to Substantia, & to the Effect as follows: (That is to say,) that the Return to which this Affidavit is annexed, is a full, perfect, and complete Return of all Meters and Things required of the said Depositor by this Act, to the best of his or her Judgment; which Affidavit may be taken before any one or more of the Commissioners sitting for the Place where the Surcharge shall be made, or where the Duty forecharged shall remain, and shall be signed by the Party making the same: Provided always, that an Appeal may be made from an Affidavit or discharge as aforesaid, and heard and determined under the Regulations of the last recited Acts respectively; and that such Appeal may be made in the like Cases as are made and in the last recited Acts respectively.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Hearing of any such Appeal, or the Appeal against any original Affidavit or Surcharge, the Appellant shall in all Cases produce before the said Commissioners, a true, perfect, and complete Schedule, as directed by this Act as aforesaid, and as the Case may require; and, if required so to do, shall verify the same upon his or her Oath or Affidavits.

LIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if upon Appeal, any Depositor shall wish touching the usual Value of any Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, and the Commissioners shall deem it necessary that a Valuation thereof should be taken and made by any Person or Persons of Skill, it shall be lawful for them to direct the Appellant to cause such Valuation to be made, the Cost and Charges whereof shall abide the said Determination of the said Commissioners; and it shall be lawful for them to make an Affidavit according to such Valuation, and to require the same to be verified on the Oath or Affidavits of the Person or Persons making the same; but in such the Appellant shall not proceed with himself to cause such Valuation to be made as aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall proceed to an Affidavit according to the best of their Judgment, on such Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages: Provided always, that it shall be competent to the said Commissioners, in every such Case where the Valuation to made shall exceed the Value put upon the same Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Heritages, by the Appellant, to direct the Costs and Charges attending the same, to be paid by him; but if they shall be of Opinion that such Costs and Charges have not been incurred through any Default of the said Appellant, they shall direct the same to be paid by the Collector or Collector of the Parish or Place, who, on the Certificate of any two or more Commissioners perfect at the Time of the Determination, shall pay the same; and the same to be allowed to such Collector or Collectors by, or other Accountant, or the Receiver-General, on delivering to him or her Deputies such Certificate, together with the Receipt of a Voucher for such Payment.

LX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if the Dispute shall arise touching the Valuation of the Properties as rated in the Poor Rate of any Parish or Place, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to direct a Survey and Valuation to be taken of all the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and Heritages, in such Parish or Place, and to give such Directions respecting the Payment of the Costs and Charges attending the same, either by the several and respective Owners thereof, in Proportion to their respective Interests, or by the Collector, out of the Monies in his Hands of the Duties granted by this Act, as shall appear to the said Commissioners to be just.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the said Commissioners, that, on account of the Assessor or Assessors having paid the Proprietors allowed on such Poor Rate, any Lands or Tenements shall have been assessed at an annual Value less than the actual Rent at which the same shall be let, or if not let, at less than the Rent at which it, here might be let, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to enlarge and increase such Assessment to such Sum as a like Rate on such Rent would amount unto, as well with respect to the Rate on the Property, as the Rate on the Occupation of such Lands and Tenements.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That upon every Surcharge allowed upon Appeal by the said Commissioners upon the Certificate of the Surveyor or Inspector as directed by this Act, the Assessment shall be made in Double the Rates of Duty prescribed in the Schedule marked (A) and (B) on the Amount of the Duty so surcharged, which Sum shall be added to the Assessment, and collected and levied therewith: Provided always, That upon every such Appeal if the said Commissioners shall be of Opinion that there was any reasonable Cause of Controversy on the Part of the Appellant on the Subject Matter of Appeal, and that the Party hath not been guilty of any wilful Default, Neglect, or Omission, nor wilfully committed any Act with Intention to defraud the Rates, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners who shall have determined the said Appeal, although they shall continue or allow the Surcharge, at the next Year to remit and strike off the Whole or any Part of the Double Duty; and the Assessor, Surveyor, or Inspector in making such Surcharge, shall be and is hereby entitled to, and shall have and receive for his own Use from the Revenue General to whom the Duties shall be paid, the surplus of the Duty so charged above the said Rate of Duty as prescribed in the said Schedule, and which shall not be so remitted or struck off as aforesaid, which Overplus the Commissioners for executing this Act, who shall have allowed such Surcharge, or any part or parts of them, shall at the next Meeting certify under their Hands to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes in England, and the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and the Commissioners of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and Barons, or any two or more of them (together), shall be a Warranty to the said Revenue General to pay the same.
